FRANK JOSEPH BODENSTEINER

b 29 Aug 1895
pb St. Lucas, Iowa
d 27 Sep 1963
pd Independence, Iowa

If Uncle Frank had been born in one of the last decades, he would have been treated as a 'special child', and been given 'special education'. But, as it was in the early 1900's, he had to make it through school on his own resources. He must have had understanding and helpful teachers, and we know he had a loving and caring family.

He learned to read and to write. He was always a good sport; he had to take a lot of teasing, but he could also do his share of it. He took part in school plays, being especially remembered as having been a very good 'hase', or rabbit, in one of the productions.

Having five farmer-brothers nearby, Frank could usually find plenty of work. In the winters, he liked to help make wood in our timber. When the chores were finished in the evenings, he enjoyed playing cards. He, like Uncle Ed, was included in every family's companies. He loved kids, and they had a lot of fun with Uncle "Fritz".

When Ed died, Frank chose to continue living in the house by the church. His last job was as a helper at the feed mill in town. In 1962, he suffered a stroke from which he never recovered. After several months at the New Hampton hospital, he was moved to the State Mental Health Institute at Independence, where he died in 1963, at the age of 68.

While writing his story, my mother showed me the nice record book of his funeral, which she had filled. It is "Dedicated to the memory of Frank Bodensteiner", and contains the usual mementoes of a funeral - the participants at the mass, a register of friends, memorial card and the like. Two items in it really touched me. First, she had included two beautiful greeting cards that had been sent to Frank when he was a young lad, by "Grandmother" from Buffalo, New York. How thoughtful of Catherine to remember her husband's special grandson.

The second item was a holy card of the Sacred Heart that read: "Come to me, all you that labour, and are burdened, and I will refresh you." Next to it, Mom had written in 1963: "Frank's picture and he had his burden." She, and all of his family, really cared . . .

EDWARD VINCENT BODENSTEINER

b 8 Nov 1905
pb St. Lucas, Iowa
d 29 Nov 1957
pd St. Lucas, Iowa

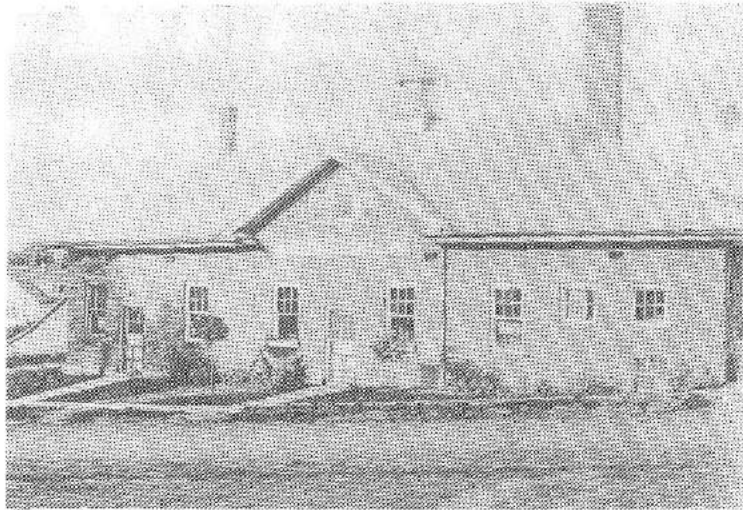

Uncle Ed never married, but he didn't lack family. He was dearly loved by his brothers and sister; there was no party, or 'company', that he wasn't included. So all of his nieces and nephews got to know him very well. His nephews had a special rapport with him, because of his love for all sports - particularly baseball and basketball. He coached our high school teams, and followed the town teams with great interest. Close games were genuine agony for him, but he loved them. Many of his nephews saw their first major league games in Chicago with Uncle Ed.

He very nearly became a priest, and although all his family thought he would have made an excellent one, he quit the seminary when he had only a year or two to go. He spent his entire life helping others. Particularly, he felt responsible for his widowed mother, and for his brother Frank. He passed up many opportunities because of this commitment.

Ed sold insurance. First, for the Northwestern Mutual Life Insurance Company, and later for the Fayette County Farm Bureau. When he needed a few new policies to meet a quota, he could usually count on another niece or nephew to have reached about the age when they should have one. All of us were grateful, when twenty years later, we were the owners of paid-up policies.

He sold seed corn, and took on various other jobs. But, he is probably most remembered as the long-time secretary of the St. Lucas Farmers Creamery. From 1933 until 1957 when he died, he must have written tens of thousands of cream checks, and signed them with the familiar "E. V. Bodensteiner".

Uncle Ed died of a heart attack in his home on November 29, 1957.

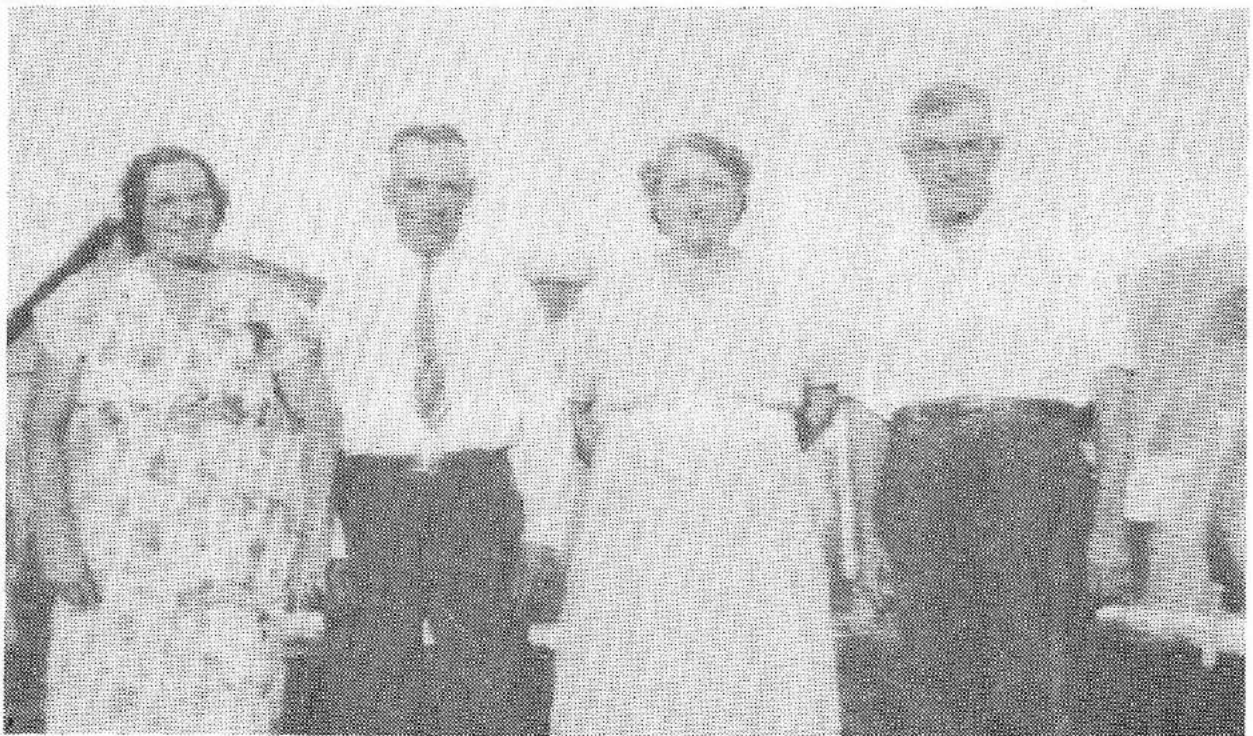

St. Lucas Farmers Creamery, 1893 - 1979.

For most of its 86 years, the Farmers Creamery was an integral part of the farm community, as well as the business community, of St. Lucas. Organized by Grandfather Henry Bodensteiner's generation, the first creamery building can be seen in the lower right corner of the picture on page 27. The present structure was built in 1924, and members had every right to be proud of it.

However, at this writing, the cooperative is being dissolved, and the building is for sale - a victim of the times . . .
